

Anoushka Vaswani

Anoushka enjoys collaborating with early-stage entrepreneurs to build category-leading companies. Anoushka is actively involved with the firm's investments in Lever, Inflection and GOAT and serves as a Board Observer for ACME Technologies and PayRange. She previously was a consultant at McKinsey & Co., focused on companies in technology, media, and payments across functions ranging from strategy to sales. She helped lead McKinsey's fast-growing technology initiative, managing engagements with pre-IPO technology companies. During her time there, she also worked with Facebook's Internet.org team and co-authored the study "Offline and falling behind: Barriers to internet adoption." Prior to McKinsey, Anoushka worked at Goldman Sachs and advised companies on mergers and acquisitions, leveraged buyouts and debt and equity offerings. She graduated with Summa Cum Laude from Columbia University and was awarded the Leonard Pullman prize for service to the college.
