

Phyllis Doherty

Phyllis Doherty is Matrix Partner's Administrative Partner. She joined the firm in 2001. Prior to joining Matrix, Phyllis held a variety of financial roles at venture backed technology startups, where she also gained experience in the IPO and acquisition processes. She was the CFO for edocs and WebSpective Software. Prior to that, she was with SolidWorks, Atria Software, and Epoch Systems. Both Atria and Epoch were successful Matrix Partners-backed companies. Before entering the start-up environment, Phyllis spent eight years at Prime Computer. She started her career as an auditor with Deloitte and Touche.